Jordan Broeker (Mr. Caton) is a freshman Mass Communications Major from Monterey, IN. He would like to say thanks to his wonderful family and friends for supporting his acting and his dreams.

Lisa Guzman (Janet) is a Junior Music Education Major from Griffith/Schererville, Indiana. She would like to say thank you to all her friends and family for their love and support all these years! "A Special thanks to Cord and Megan for giving me this opportunity to perform and to Nikita & Amanda for being a GREAT cast!!"

Nikita Hall (Quella) is a senior majoring in Biology from LaPorte, IN. This is her fifth show at SJC. She would like to thank all of her Family and Friends for their support and hopes that everyone will enjoy the show!!

Kaylee Hofmeister (Sara) is junior Mass Communications from McCordsville, IN. She is program director of WPUM, layout and design editor of Measure, and promotions director of SUB. Though she has helped out with other productions, this is Kaylee's first time on the SJC stage. She says, "I have loved working with BJ and Mike and only wished I could have spent more time with the amazing actors and directors of the other One-Acts. Enjoy the show!!!"

Mike Koscielny (Will) is a Mathematics and English double major hailing from Elkhart, IN. He is President of SUB, the sophomore class president, the News Editor of the Observer, a member of the Columbian Players and Improvisation. He would like say "Beef!"

Heather Marie Madden (Anita Brown) is a junior Psychology Major from Lafayette, IN. She is involved in Right for Life, the Columbian Players, the Production Under Construction Players, and Alpha Lambda Delta. This is her third show on the SJC stage.

Jennifer Ruff (Annabelle) is a sophomore English major from Star City, IN. This is her first play here at Saint Joe. She says, "It was a real challenge but I wouldn't trade it in for any! I became really close to the cast and learned a lot about myself in the process."

Becca Schafer (Mrs. Caton) is a Freshman Theatre and Art double-major from Plymouth, IN. She is also involved in the Columbian Players, SUB, and Puma Women Today. She would like to say, "Thanks Jonathan, Heather, Jennifer, and Jordan for working with me so well and teaching me so much. Don't worry guys we'll keep in touch, I'll shoot ya'all an e-mail sometime. Thanks especially to my exceptional family: they are the circle of people that love me, the best of my friends back home, right here, and far away. I thank you all for inspiring and supporting me through it all."

Amanda Marie Zarate (Annarae) is a freshman Theatre and Mass Communications major from Kankakee, Illinois. This is her very first show at SJC. She would like to say, "Thanks for coming to support all of the actors and directors tonight. Hope you enjoy the show."

Danielle Klosowski (Stage Manager) is a senior Mass Communications major from Schaumburg, IL. She is also involved in TV6, Tutoring, president of the Columbian Players, Alpha Lambda Delta, and Delta Epsilon Sigma. She says she enjoyed working with everyone in the One-Acts.

Cord Atkinson (Director of "Interviews With Loneliness") is a senior English major from Gas City. This is his first time directing a show. He would like to say, "Thank you to the cast and crew, to my beautiful assistant Megan Barker, and a special thanks to John Rahe for letting us have this great opportunity. I chose this show because it depicts real life women in real life situations and opens peoples eyes to the struggles some women go through in their daily lives. Thank you and enjoy the show!"

Jonathan Broeker (Director of "The Vacant Room") is a senior double major in Business and Theatre from Monterey, Indiana. He is also involved in the school's newspaper and investment club. He would like to thank John Rahe for allowing him to direct a play this year. His guidance has made a lasting impact. He would also like to give a special thanks to his family and his amazing cast.

BJ Houlding (Director of "Well, I'm Going") is a senior double major in Mathematics and Theatre Arts from Winnebago, IL. He has been in nine shows on the SJC stage, and is directing his first. He is also the Vice President of the Columbian Players, President of the Production Under Construction Improvisation group, and Head Editor of the Observer. He would like to say, "Thank you to my cast and the lovely Melissa Piskula for all her help. It's been a fun and interesting experience, but I look forward to getting back on the other side of the stage. Enjoy the show."
